

IPF International Consulting

We are a company located in Southern Spain called IPF International Consulting. We specialize in the management, development and implementation of training plans. In addition we provide the service of organizing touristic visits to our country and our city.

IPF's objectives are to achieve quality and success when delivering important services such as student job training, guidance and assurance to enjoy the best corners of our city. IPF operates as a private center, but also participate in programs of the European Union and other institutions.

Throughout our more than twenty years of experience, we have participated in European projects and continue to do so today. In addition, we have experience in organising travel practices for visitors, providing orientation to enjoy the charms of Southern Spain and obtain work here. At IPF we are aware of the importance of dealing with cultural exchange, learning languages, traditions and the value of traveling and of course providing tranquility as an organization.
